**The fan-base began to get "pennant-fever" after the M's got off to the major leagues best start (13-2) before reality set in. That streak followed with a dismal 26-56 run giving a signal to the front-office to "go with the kids"...Dan Vogelbach led the offense with 30 homers, 76 RBI, and 73 runs scored. Omar Narvaez had the most base hits (119). The team posted a .237 BA and hit 239 home runs...Marco Gonzales was tops on the pitching staff with 16 wins and 147 strikeouts. Former ace Felix Hernandez, 33, may have pitched his last game as a Mariner, going 1-8 in wins/losses. The staff ERA ended the year at 4.99.**
