"The Fish" put up the second-worst record in franchise history and missed the post-season for the 16th straight year...They DID win three season series from the Phillies (10-9), Padres (4-2), and the Diamondbacks (4-3)...The customarily light-hitting Starlin Castro led the Marlins offense in four categories: home runs (22), RBI (86), base hits (172), and runs scored (68). Brian Anderson, 26, had a break-out season with 20 homers and 66 RBI. Miami hit .241 at the plate (13th in the N. L.) and 146 home runs (last)...Caleb Smith was the lead-man on the pitching staff: 10 victories and 168 strikeouts. The very promising Sandy Alcantara finished six up and fourteen down while punching out 151 opponents. The staff was thirteenth in the league with a 4.74 ERA.
