The D-Backs won only three more games than they did in 2018, but they set a few franchise records: Slammed an N. L. record 8 of 13 home runs (combined) during a game with the Phillies in June. In September, the team played the franchise's longest game (19 innings, 6 hrs 53 mins) versus the Cardinals. Arizona WON both ballgames. At least two games under/over .500 for 60 straight days, breaking an MLB record (56) by the A's...With his 35 home runs and 118 RBI, Eduardo Escobar led the way offensively. Ketel Marte posted a team-high 187 base hits and 97 runs scored. The ballclub hit .252 and 220 homers...Korean league baseball veteran and major league rookie Merrill Kelly's 13 wins topped the pitching staff. Robbie Ray (12 W's) was the staff leader in strikeouts (235). Kelly followed with 158 K's. Zack Greinke won 10 times before being traded to Houston. The staff ERA: 4.25.
