The Yankees and their pinstriped legions keep rolling along in '53: "Whitey" Ford is back from military duty to lead the starting rotation. Mickey Mantle, 21, is bursting with power and patrolling Yankee Stadium's huge outfield "pasture" like he had always been there. Billy Martin and Phil Rizzuto cover the Yankee middle infield as well as anyone in baseball. Casey has it pretty good... Yogi Berra, at 28-years old, leads the Yankees with 27 home runs and 108 RBI. Mantle hit 21 homers, drove in ninety-two, and led the team with 105 runs scored. "The Bronx Bombers" were American League leaders with a .273 batting average, 801 runs, and second by hitting 139 home runs...

Mantle's pal, "Whitey" Ford, led the pitching staff with an 18-6 W/L record and 110 strikeouts. Eddie Lopat was 16-4 and Allie Reynolds 13-7. Reliever/spot starter Johnny Sain returned to win fourteen while old stalwart Vic Raschi went 13-6 for the year. The staff led the A.L. with a 3.20 ERA and 16 shutouts, of which Ford had eleven...

Stengel's ball club put away the Dodgers for the fourth time in five years by taking the World Series, four games to two. It was the Yanks' FIFTH straight crown, a record which stands to this day. It was the team's 16th World Series victory in franchise history... Second baseman Billy Martin, the Yankee hero in the '52 Classic, hit .500 in the series, 12 for 24, which included two homers, two triples, a double, five runs scored and a team leading eight RBI. Berra hit .429 with a home run, but Mantle hit for only .208 while slamming two home runs and driving in seven. Rizzuto swung for a .316 average.
