Aubrey Huff (59 RBI) led the D-Rays with 23 home runs. Switch-hitting outfielder Randy Winn was the team leader after collecting 181 base hits, 87 runs scored, and 75 RBI. Winn added 14 homers to the offense. Ben Grieve would hit 19 dingers and drive home sixty-four. Jared Sandberg hit 18 home runs while Steve Cox hit sixteen and was second on the team with 72 runs batted in. Catcher John Flaherty was among the team leaders with 20 doubles. The D-Rays scored 673 runs for the year...Joe Kennedy and Victor Zambrano both led the pitching staff with eight wins apiece. Tanyon Sturtze (4-18 won/loss record) led the staff with 137 strikeouts. Paul Wilson (6-12) had 111 punch outs. The D-Rays pitching staff had the worst ERA in the American League at 5.29; likewise, they posted the fewest saves with twenty-five for the season. The staff allowed the most runs scored with 918... Go figure, Tampa Bay led the league with 12 complete games, Kennedy had FIVE of them...On offense, the D-Rays hit .253 with 133 home runs--the latter second-to-last in the junior circuit...Tampa Bay ended the season an embarrassing 48 games behind AL East champion, New York. The D-Rays were victors in ONE season series, 4-2, against the Tigers...Season attendance at Tropicana Field was just over 1.06 million--LAST in the American League.

The so-called "experts" who have followed major league baseball "forever" have rated this '02 edition of the D-Rays as one of the twenty WORST teams of all time...Some had them positioned in the TOP TEN!
