Part-timer Garrett Jones led the ball club with 21 home runs. The Bucs' RBI leader was Andy LaRoche with sixty-four. LaRoche, his older brother, Adam, and rookie Andrew McCutchen each popped 12 homers. Zach Duke and Ross Ohlendorf led the pitching staff with 11 wins each; Paul Maholm was tops with 119 strikeouts...The Pirates became the first team in professional sports to have a record seventeen consecutive losing seasons. As a team, the Buccos hit .252 and 125 home runs. The staff ERA was 4.59...Attendance at PNC Park was second to last in the league at just over 1.5 million.
