The Rays managed their pitching staff using relievers as "openers" for many games for the first inning or two. It led to a new major league record for "no-decisions" by starters (91) and wins by relievers (55)...American League Cy Young Award recipient Blake Snell finished the year with a 21-5 record and 221 strikeouts. The staff ERA was second in the league (3.74)...Rays' batters hit .258 and 150 home runs. C. J. Cron topped the ball club with 30 homers, 74 RBI, and 68 runs scored. Matt Duffy led the team in hits (148).
