The Padres 50th season in San Diego was not a good one: 35-46, last place, 10 ½ games out of first after 81 games; 28-48 versus NL West teams...Hunter Renfroe knocked out 26 home runs to lead the ball club. Newcomer Eric Hosmer earned a big paycheck by posting the most RBI (69), base hits (155), and runs scored (72). Hosmer slugged 18 homers; Christian Villanueva hit twenty. As a team, the Padres batted .235 and hit 162 home runs...On the pitching staff, starter Joey Lucchesi and reliever Craig Stammen both won eight games, the most among the hurlers. Lucchesi was also the leader with 145 strikeouts. The staff ERA was 4.40, ranking them thirteenth in the league.
