At the season's mid-way point, the A's were 10 1/2 games behind the AL West leader and in third place with a 43-38 record. The ball club put together three six-game winning streaks which played a large role in Oakland's 54-27 run to a Wild Card spot during the season's second half. The A's were knocked from the post-season after losing the Wild Card Game, 7-2, to the Yankees in New York. Skipper Bob Melvin was deservedly selected as the league's Manager of the Year, his third such award... DH Khris Davis led the majors with 48 home runs and finished second with 123 RBI. Marcus Semien (70 RBI) was tops with 161 base hits and rising star Matt Chapman scored 100 runs to lead the team. Oakland hit .252 as a squad and finished second in the A. L. with 227 homers... Number One starter Sean Manaea posted the pitching staff's most wins (12) and strikeouts (108). Closer Blake Treinen whiffed 100 opposing hitters. The A's ended the year sixth in the league with a slick 3.81 ERA.
