The Rockies and Dodgers finished in a tie for first place in the NL West after Colorado had acquired a one-game lead after Game 160. The Rockies split their last two games of the regular season while L. A. won its last two against the Giants. Game 163 was played at Dodger Stadium which the home team won 5-2 and sent the Rockies to the NL Wild Card Game versus the Cubs at Wrigley Field. Colorado won this contest, 2-1, in thirteen innings, and advanced to the NLDS opposite Milwaukee who ultimately swept the Rockies out of the post-season in three games...Nolan Arenado, who was third in NL MVP voting, topped the ball club with 38 home runs and 110 RBI. He also picked up his sixth Gold Glove Award while his home run lot was the most in the league. Trevor Story slugged 37 homers and drove home one hundred eight runs. Charlie Blackmon hit 29 round-trippers and led the team with 182 base hits and 119 runs scored. Story (85) collected the most extra-base hits in the majors. As a team, Colorado hit .256 and 210 homers, both third in the league...Kyle Freeland completed the year with a 17-7 W/L record and 173 strikeouts. He placed fourth in NL Cy Young Award voting. German Marquez was a fourteen-game winner and whiffed 230 batters to lead the staff. Jon Gray posted 12 victories and struck out 183 opponents. The staff ERA of 4.33 placed them twelfth among N. L. teams.
