The Rays finished their twentieth season 13 games behind AL East champ Boston and just five games out of a Wild Card berth...Logan Morrison led the ball club with 38 home runs. Steven Souza, Jr. was next with 30 dingers. Corey Dickerson posted team highs in base hits (166) and runs scored (84). Evan Longoria topped the Rays in RBI (86). The team hit .245 and 228 homers...The pitching staff's leader was Alex Cobb with 12 wins. Chris Archer won ten (matching Jake Odorizzi) and led the staff with 249 strikeouts. The hurlers finished fourth in the league in ERA (3.97) and led the A.L. in saves for the season...Dickerson and Archer were named A.L. All Stars.
