Third baseman Travis Shaw tied Eric Thames for the team lead in home runs (31). Shaw posted a team high 147 base hits and 34 doubles. Domingo Santana slammed 30 round-trippers and led the ball club with 88 runs scored. Thames crossed the plate 83 times. Speedster Keon Broxton added 20 dingers while Ryan Braun was limited to 104 games and ended the year with 17 homers, 52 RBI, and 28 doubles. The "Brew Crew" was eleventh in the N.L. in hitting (.249) but were the league home run kings with 224 for the season. Their 128 stolen bases topped the senior circuit as well...Twenty-four year old Zach Davies was the pitching staff's ace with a 17-9 W/L record. Jimmy Nelson and Chase Anderson both won twelve ball games. Nelson struck out 199 opponents to lead the staff. Closer Corey Knebel whiffed 126 batters and led the league in appearances. The staff ERA of 4.00 ranked them fifth in the N.L. They racked up the most saves (54)...The Brewers missed a Wild Card spot by one game and finished six games in back of the NL Central champ Cubs who won their season series, 10-9.
