"The Fish" finished second in the NL East 20 games in back of division champion Washington. They were ten games behind the leaders for a Wild Card berth...On June 3rd, Edinson Volquez pitched his first career no-hitter (the sixth in franchise history) against the Diamondbacks at Marlins Park. The score was 3-0. Volquez struck out ten and walked two batters--both of whom were later erased on double plays--allowing the righthander to face the minimum of twenty-seven for the game. He needed 98 pitches to complete his "no-no."...Giancarlo Stanton led the majors with 59 home runs (18 were hit in August) and 132 runs batted in. His 91 extra-base hits tied for the major league high while his 123 runs scored topped the Marlins. Dee Gordon was the team leader in base hits (201). Marcell Ozuna followed Stanton with 37 dingers. Miami hit .267 and 194 homers, the latter ranked them ninth in the N.L....Jose Urena led the hurlers with a 14-7 W/L record. Dan Straily topped the staff with 170 K's for the year; Urena whiffed 113 batters. The staff ERA was thirteenth in the league at 4.82. Reliever Kyle Barraclough struck out 76 batters.
