The Redlegs 128th major league campaign resulted in another dismal finish: 24 games behind division champ Chicago; last place in the NL Central standings for the third year out of the previous four; and an absence from the post-season for the fourth consecutive season...As a team, the Reds hit .253 and 219 home runs. Joey Votto was the leader with 36 homers, 100 RBI, 179 base hits, and 106 runs scored. "Scooter" Gennett (27 dingers, 97 RBI), became the 17th player in major league history to hit FOUR home runs in the same game, June 6th. He had ten RBI during a 13-1 victory over the Cardinals in Cincinnati. Billy Hamilton stroked a WALK-OFF inside-the-park homer September 4th at home against the Brewers...The staff ERA was the WORST in the major leagues, a horrendous 5.17. They also allowed the MOST home runs in the majors (248). Reliever Michael Lorenzen led the hurlers with EIGHT wins. Tim Adleman racked up 108 strikeouts to lead the staff. Scott Feldman won seven contests and struck out 93 batters among the starters while closer Raisel Iglesias whiffed ninety-two.
