Following the 2016 season, the White Sox named a new MGR and decided on a huge shake-up of the team's on-field playing personnel. The result was a 35-game finish behind AL Central champ Cleveland...Jose Abreu led the Sox in homers (33), RBI (102), base hits (189), runs scored (95), and doubles (43). As a team, the Chisox hit .256 and 186 home runs for the year...Two hurlers, Derek Holland and Miguel Gonzalez, both led the pitching staff with just SEVEN wins. Jose Quintana, traded to the cross-town Cubs prior to the July 31 * trade deadline, ultimately led the staff with 109 strikeouts. James Shields won five ballgames. The staff ERA was 4.78.
