The M's missed the playoffs for the 16th consecutive season; their last appearance was in 2001. Despite a lot of player turnover, the ball club would finish the year 23 games in back of the eventual World Champion Astros but only seven games out of a Wild Card spot...DH Nelson Cruz led Seattle with 39 home runs, 119 RBI, and 91 runs scored. Kyle Seager bashed 27 dingers while Robbie Cano (23 homers) topped the M's in base hits (166). Backstop Mike Zunino popped 25 round-trippers. As a team, the M's went on to hit .259 and 200 homers...The pitching staff turned in a 4.46 ERA, eighth in the A.L. James Paxton topped the hurlers with 12 wins and 156 strikeouts. Lefty Ariel Miranda followed with eight victories and 137 K's. Felix Hernandez, now 31 years old, was 6-5 in wins/losses. He struck out seventy-eight. Closer Edwin Diaz whiffed 89 batters and tied for fourth in the league in saves.
