The Angels battled the upstart Astros for most of the season to capture the top spot in the AL West. The Halos DID hold first place for TEN days, alone, before they lost nineteen games in August which dashed their post-season dream. Anaheim ended the year just three games in back of division champ Texas and one game out of a Wild Card spot...The Angels hit .246 as a ball club and 176 homers...Mike Trout led the team in homers (41), runs scored (104), and hits (172). He knocked in 90 runs. Albert Pujols was next with 40 home runs and 95 RBI. Kole Calhoun popped 26 dingers and drove in eighty-three...Garrett Richards led the pitching staff with 15 wins and 176 K's. Lefty Hector Santiago followed with just nine victories and 162 strikeouts. C. J. Wilson won eight games...The staff ERA was 3.94...The Angels WON the season series from the Rangers, 12-7...GM Jerry DiPoto resigned in July after a rumored rift with Scioscia over the use of analytics.
