Long considered one of the top minds in the game, General Manager Dave Dombrowski, who had been with the Tigers since 2002, was released from his contract in August. Soon after, he signed on with the Red Sox as President of Baseball Operations...Injuries plagued several key players the team couldn't afford to miss: Justin Verlander, Victor Martinez, Miguel Cabrera, Jose Iglesias, and Anibal Sanchez...J. D. Martinez led the ball club with 38 home runs and 102 RBI. Ian Kinsler was tops with 185 base hits and 94 runs scored. He hit 11 homers and drove home seventy-three. Cabrera hit 18 homers, knocked in 76 runs, and led the majors in batting average. Detroit hit 151 home runs and led the A.L. with a .270 batting average including 1,515 hits...Alfredo Simon led the pitching staff with thirteen wins. Sanchez tied David Price (nine wins) for the staff lead with 138 strikeouts. Price would later be traded to Toronto. Verlander was 5-8 with 113 K's. The staff ERA of 4.64 was LAST in the league...Detroit finished LAST in the AL Central and missed the post-season for the first time since 2010.
