After the Cardinals jumped out to a 22-7 start, they sprinted on to win the NL Central for the third consecutive year...The upstart and arch-rival Chicago Cubs eliminated the Redbirds from the post-season, winning the NLDS, three games to one. The Cards won the first game at home, but dropped the next three...Matt Carpenter was the team leader with 28 homers, 84 RBI, 101 runs scored, and 44 doubles. Jhonny Peralta was next with 17 home runs and 71 RBI. Randall Grichuk added 17 dingers and drove home forty-seven while Jason Heyward led the ball club in base hits (160)...Michael Wacha was the Cardinals' big winner with 17 victories; Carlos Martinez was 14-7 and led the pitching staff with 184 K's. John Lackey was a thirteen game winner while Lance Lynn added twelve. Lackey struck out 175 batters. Closer Trevor Rosenthal whiffed eighty-three...For the season, the Redbirds hit .253 and 137 home runs...The staff had the best ERA in the majors (2.94) and the most saves (62)...Promising young outfielder Oscar Taveras was lost in a tragic, alcohol-related car accident, October 2014, in his home country of the Dominican Republic..."Yadi" Molina won his eighth Gold Glove.
