After finishing runners-up in the 2014 World Series, the Royals returned to the post-season in 2015 and advanced to the Fall Classic for the second time in consecutive seasons. Kansas City beat a very game Astros ball club in the ALDS, three games to two, after Houston had won four of six games in their regular season series...K. C. needed six games to eliminate the Blue Jays in the ALCS. The Royals won their second World Championship and first since 1985 after having their way with the Mets in the World Series, four games to two...

Mike Moustakas and DH Kendrys Morales tied for the team lead after both clubbed 22 home runs. Morales was the team leader with 106 runs batted in.. One of the best young catchers in baseball, Salvador Perez, hit 21 homers and drove in seventy. Centerfielder Lorenzo Cain cracked 16 dingers, drove home 72 runs, and led the team in runs scored (101). Eric Hosmer was tops on the ball club with 178 base hits. He scored 98 times. The Royals were second in the A.L. with a .269 batting average and fourteenth in homers (139)...Edinson Volquez and fire-balling youngster Yordano Ventura led the pitching staff after both posted 13 victories. Ventura had 156 K's and Volquez struck out 155 to lead the staff. Royals' hurlers were third in the A.L. with a 3.73 ERA...Perez, Hosmer, and shortstop Alcides Escobar all won a Gold Glove. Perez, with eight hits and a .364 batting average, was named World Series MVP.
