Andrew McCutchen led the Buccos with 24 home runs, 153 base hits, and 81 runs scored, but hit well below his usual standards which led to a three-game benching mid-season. He had 79 RBI. "Cutch" wasn't as sharp in the field as well. It was a very odd year for a former N.L. MVP. Gregory Polanco (22 HRs) topped the ball club with 86 RBI. The Bucs hit .257 and 153 homers for the season...Juan Nicasio led the pitching staff with 10 wins and 138 strikeouts. Southpaw Jeff Locke, a one-time All Star and promising front-line starter, was a disappointing 9-8 with 73 K's. The pitching staff compiled a 4.21 ERA.
