Miguel Cabrera led the Tigers with 38 home runs, 108 RBI, and 188 base hits. What's more, "Miggy" recorded his 2,500th career hit, his 1,500th career RBI, and 300th home run as a Tiger. Justin Upton launched 31 homers and drove home eighty-seven. Ian Kinsler (28 homers, 83 RBI, 117 runs scored) and Victor Martinez (27 home runs, 86 RBI) added a lot of punch to the Detroit offense. Martinez also knocked in the 1,000th RBI of his career... Justin Verlander returned to his old form, leading the pitching staff in strikeouts (254) for the fourth time in his career. Verlander also topped the staff with 16 victories. A.L. Rookie of the Year, Michael Fulmer, was outstanding with an 11-7 mark and 132 K's. Francisco Rodriguez registered his 425th career save as well...Detroit nearly sneaked in to the post-season, but a loss to Atlanta on the regular season's final day, and wins by both Baltimore and Toronto dashed the Tigers' hopes. The Tigers won only four of eighteen games versus AL Central Champ, Cleveland...For the year, the Tigers hit .267 (#2 in the A.L.) and 211 home runs (6th). They were also second in the league with 1,476 base hits...The staff ERA was 4.24.
