Kris Bryant (102 RBI) was the team leader with 39 home runs, 176 base hits, and 121 runs scored. First baseman Anthony Rizzo was the RBI leader with one-hundred nine and doubles (43). He also blasted 32 homers. Addison Russell added 21 dingers and 95 RBI...Jon Lester, at 19-5, topped the pitching staff in wins as well as strikeouts (197) ...Jake Arrieta no-hit the Reds in Cincinnati, April 20th, for his second career "no-no". He struck out six and walked four batters. Arrieta went on to win eighteen games while Kyle Hendricks won sixteen and Jason Hammel fifteen...The Cubs outlasted the Indians in seven games to win their first World Championship since 1908 and the days of "Tinker to Evers to Chance." (Their skipper, "Husk" Chance would have been very proud)...Bryant was named the National League's MVP...Chicago hit .256, 199 homers, and were second in the league after scoring 808 runs...The staff ERA was 3.15, tops in the majors, and finished third in strikeouts (1,441).
