Todd Frazier was the White Sox' home run leader with forty. He also drove home ninety-eight. Cuban Jose Abreu followed with 25 homers, including a team leading 100 RBI and 183 base hits. Melky Cabrera added 14 round-trippers and 86 runs batted in. Adam Eaton scored a team high 91 runs...Chris Sale, who got into a mid-season dust up with upper management over wearing throw-back uniforms Sale felt were too uncomfortable to pitch in, topped the pitching staff with 17 victories and 233 strikeouts. Jose Quintana would end the season with a 13-12 won/loss mark and 181 K's. The staff ERA was 4.10...The White Sox had won 85 games in Robin Ventura's first year as skipper, but a disappointing finish in 2015 and a great start in 2016 (24-13 on May 14th, 1st Place) followed by a big drop off in the team's performance (54-71 the rest of the way) led to speculation throughout the season he would be let go as manager. Ventura resigned from his position, October 2nd...Chris Sale was traded to Boston, December 6th...Ken Harrelson's "Good Guys" went on to hit .257 and 168 home runs for the year...The "Hawk" only broadcast road games in 2016.
