The Braves ended the season second in the National League with a .272 team batting average. Their power-laden line-up topped the N. L. with 222 homers. Leading the way was superstar Andruw Jones with a team high 41 homers, 129 RBI, and 107 runs scored. Arguably the best centerfielder in baseball, Jones, 29, won his ninth consecutive Gold Glove Award. Adam LaRoche hit 32 dingers to go with 90 RBI; Jeff Francoeur blasted 29 home runs and drove in 103; "Chipper" Jones, 34, was good for 26 homers and 86 RBI; and Brian McCann added 24 homers and 93 RBI. Third baseman Jones did not have enough plate appearances to compete for the batting title. Edgar Renteria led the ball club in base hits (175)...The pitching staff finished tenth in the league with a 4.60 ERA. Thirty-nine-year-old John Smoltz topped the staff with sixteen wins and threw his usual "smoke" to punch out 211 batters. Tim Hudson notched 13 victories to his belt; lefty Chuck James won eleven...Not including the strike-shortened 1994 season, the Braves posted a losing record and failed to make the post-season for the first time since 1990. Their impressive string of 11 straight seasons as champions of the NL East Division also came to an end.
