D-Backs' fans adored leftfielder Luis "Gonzo" Gonzalez ever since he drove in the game winning run to win the 2001 World Series and for his 57 home run year. On April 18th, Gonzalez hit his 500th career double to become only the 21st player in major league history to rack up at least 500 doubles and 300 career home runs. In 2006, Gonzalez was a prime contributor with 15 dingers, 73 RBI and a team leading 93 runs. Eric Byrnes topped the D-Backs with 26 home runs. He knocked in seventy-nine and scored 82 times. Chad Tracy had 20 homers and led the ball club in hits (168). Orlando Hudson, with 166 hits and 15 homers, won his second Gold Glove. For the season, Arizona hit .267 and 160 round-trippers...Brandon Webb's 16 wins and 178 strikeouts led the pitching staff. Claudio Vargas and Miguel Batista followed with twelve and eleven wins, respectively. Reliever Brandon Medders was a five-game winner as well as Juan Cruz who rang up 88 K's. The staff ERA was 4.48...The last season the D-Backs used purple and aqua as their original and familiar primary colors...Arizona drew 2.09 million to Chase Field for the season.
