"The Team. The Time. The Mets." As a ball club, the Metropolitans hit .264 and were fourth in the N.L. with 200 home runs. Carlos Beltran led the team with 41 homers and 127 runs scored. He and David Wright tied for the most RBI (116). Carlos Delgado socked 38 taters and drove home 114 runs. Wright added 26 homers. Speedster Jose Reyes ended the year with a "triple double": 30 doubles, 17 triples (most in the majors), and 19 home runs. He also led the ball club in hits (194) and drove in 81 runs while scoring 122 times...Tom Glavine and Steve Trachsel each won 15 games while Pedro Martinez (9-8) led the pitching staff in strikeouts (137). "El Duque," Orlando Hernandez, won nine ball games and struck out 112 batters. Closer Billy Wagner whiffed ninety-four. The staff ERA of 4.14 was third in the N.L... The Mets swept the Dodgers, 3-0, in the NLDS to oppose the Cardinals in the NLCS. The Cards eliminated New York four games to three. Shea Stadium attendance was just over 3.3 million for the season.
