On April 29th, the O's dropped into fourth place of the AL East with a 13-12 W/L record and filled that spot for the remainder of the season. After Game 81, the Orioles were 37-44 and thirteen games from the division lead...The Birds finished seventh in the league with a .277 team batting average and eleventh with 164 home runs. Miguel Tejada led the O's in most offensive categories: Homers (24), RBI (100), base hits (214), and runs scored (99). Backstop Ramon Hernandez was next with 23 home runs and 91 RBI. Melvin Mora, Corey Patterson, and rookie Nick Markakis all hit 16 dingers. Markakis, 22, who handled rightfield at Camden Yards like a veteran, was sixth in AL Rookie of the Year voting...The pitching staff turned in a 5.35 ERA, ranking them thirteenth in the A. L. Number One starter Erik Bedard had a fine season with 15 wins and 171 strikeouts to lead the hurlers. Kris Benson earned eleven victories. The staff allowed 899 runs to score, the second most in the majors. Kansas City gave up 971 for the season.
