Manager Bruce Bochy concluded twelve seasons as the Padres field leader with one National League pennant and four NL West Division titles, the last division crown in 2006. San Diego finished the season in a dead tie with the Dodgers; however, the Padres won the top spot with a 13-5 regular season record versus L. A. In the NLDS against the Cardinals, the Redbirds eliminated San Diego, 3-1. Bochy's record as the Padres skipper was 951-975 (.494). His next stop will be with the rival Giants in 2007...Adrian Gonzalez cracked 24 homers and collected 173 base hits to be the team leader. Mike Cameron and Brian Giles both compiled the most RBI (83); Cameron was the high-man after scoring 88 runs. Mike Piazza and Cameron both slugged 22 home runs. As a team, the Padres hit .263 and 161 homers... "Woody" Williams won twelve games to lead the pitching staff; Jake Peavy, Clay Hensley, and Chris Young all won eleven ball games. Peavy led the hurlers with 215 strikeouts while Young was second with 164 K's. Closer Trevor Hoffman led the league in saves. The staff had the best ERA in the N. L. (3.87) and the most saves (50).
