National League MVP Albert Pujols was once again the Cardinals' leader with 37 homers, 116 RBI, 187 hits, and 100 runs scored. He also enjoyed a streak of 42 games in which he reached base safely. Ryan Ludwick joined Pujols in a year in which he produced 37 home runs and 113 RBI. Troy Glaus, who had been acquired in January in a trade which sent the disgruntled Scott Rolen to Toronto, clubbed 27 dingers and drove in ninety-nine. The Cards' .281 batting average led the N.L. while their 176 homers ranked them sixth...Number One starter Kyle Lohse topped the pitching staff with 15 wins. Todd Wellemeyer was tops with 134 K's. Braden Looper added twelve wins while Adam Wainwright claimed eleven victories despite missing time with a broken finger...The Redbirds finished fourth even though they won eight more games than in the '07 season when they finished third and posted their worst record since 1999. They ended the year 11 1/2 games behind the division champion Cubs.
