Nick Swisher was the leader on the ball club with 22 home runs. Jason Kipnis hit 17 dingers and led the Indians with 84 RBI, 160 base hits, and 86 runs scored. Carlos Santana was good for 20 homers and 74 RBI. Utilityman Mark Reynolds clubbed 15 round-trippers. The Tribe hit .255 for the year with 171 home runs...Justin Masterson led the pitching staff with 14 wins, 195 strikeouts, three complete games, and three shutouts. Ubaldo Jimenez won thirteen ball games and whiffed 194 batters. Corey Kluber ended the year 11-5 while Zach McAllister was 10-9 in wins and losses. The staff ERA was 3.82 and racked up 1,379 strikeouts...

Terry Francona was hired to manage the Tribe after Manny Acta was let go after three seasons. "Tito" accepted the job because he liked the make-up of the ball club and his familiarity with club president Mark Shapiro. Francona also had had a previous stint in Cleveland as part of the front office...The team opened the season 8-13 then found their groove and spent as many as eight days in first place by the All Star break. At the break, they were 51-44, in second place, and a game-and-a-half out of first. The Indians never reached the top spot again but managed to make it to the AL Wild Card game where they were shut out at home by Tampa Bay, 4-0, to end their season. Francona was later named American League Manager of the Year.
