On September 9th, the Bucs won their 82nd game of the season which ensured them of their first WINNING campaign since 1992 snapping a 20-year record of futility... Leading the way was centerfielder Andrew McCutchen who was named the N.L.'s Most Valuable Player. He finished seventh in the N.L. batting race and led the team with 185 base hits and 97 runs scored as well as his outstanding defense. Pedro Alvarez hit 36 homers to tie for the league lead and drove in 100 runs to lead the ball club... McCutchen socked 16 dingers. Starling Marte hit for a "triple double": 26 doubles, 10 triples, and 12 homers. The Buccos hit .245 and 161 home runs...Lefty Francisco Liriano led the pitching staff with 16 wins. A. J. Burnett, Jeff Locke, and rookie Gerrit Cole all won ten ball games. Burnett was the strikeout leader (209). Closer Jason Grilli had 74 K's. The staff ERA placed them third in the N.L. (3.26)...The Bucs knocked off the Reds in the NL Wild Card Game before losing to the Cards, three games to two in the NLDS.
