Power hitter Giancarlo Stanton was one of the FEW bright spots on a horrendous ball club. He led the team with 24 homers, 62 RBI, and 62 runs scored. Justin Ruggiano gave Stanton some support with 18 home runs and 50 RBI. Shortstop Adeiny Hechavarria was the leader with 123 hits; Stanton had 106 safeties. The Marlins were LAST in the N. L. with a .231 batting average, 95 homers, and 513 runs...In twenty-year-old flame-thrower Jose Hernandez, they have a winner. He was 12-6 with 187 K's and allowed only 111 hits. Four other pitchers on the staff won at least FIVE games: Koehler, Nolasco, Alvarez, and Qualls. Marlins' hurlers were SEVENTH in the league with a 3.71 ERA. Closer Steve Cishek struck out 74 batters; A. J. Ramos racked up 86 K's...The team lost the most games in franchise history, finished 26-55 on the road, and the season 34 games behind first place Atlanta. Their record at the All Star break was 35-58. Attendance at Marlins Park was last in the N. L. at just over 1.58 million.
