Manager Sam Perlozzo was let go on June 18th with the ball club's record at 29-40. He was immediately replaced by bullpen coach Dave Trembley who guided the O's to a 40-53 mark the remainder of the year. On August 22nd, Trembley was announced as the permanent new skipper and his team went out and lost that day's game, 30-3, to Texas, the most lopsided loss in franchise history. It is also listed as the worst loss by any big league team since 1897...Nick Markakis was the O's biggest contributor in the batter's box by leading the team in homers (23), RBI (112), base hits (191), and doubles (43). Brian Roberts was the team leader in runs scored (103) and led the American League in stolen bases. Five other players together hit 76 home runs; the Orioles combined to hit 142 for the year. The team batting average was .272, sixth in the league...The pitching staff finished next-to-last in the A. L. after producing a 5.17 ERA. (Tampa Bay was worse at 5.53.) Erik Bedard topped the staff with 13 wins and 221 strikeouts. Daniel Cabrera followed with nine victories and 166 punch outs. He LOST 18 ballgames.
