The Rangers fired manager "Buck" Showalter after the '06 season with three years remaining on his contract. Former A's third base coach Ron Washington was signed as the new skipper...Sammy Sosa topped the ball club with 21 homers. He knocked home 92 runs. Michael Young led the team in RBI (94), base hits (201), and doubles (37). All Star and second-year second baseman Ian Kinsler socked 20 dingers and led the team in runs scored (96). Platoon player Brad Wilkerson popped 20 home runs. Texas hit .263 for the season and 179 homers...Kevin Millwood led the pitching staff with ten victories and 123 strikeouts. Reliever Joaquin Benoit followed with a 7-4 record and 87 K's. Kameron Loe and Vicente Padilla both won six games. The staff ERA was 4.75 with ZERO shutouts and complete games...The ball club had a 34-47 record after eighty-one contests and got no closer than thirteen games to the division leader as late as July 25th. They finished 19-games behind the American League West champ Angels who won their season series, 10-9.
