Jeff King, simply the best player on the ball club, led the Bucs with 30 home runs and 111 RBI. Al Martin followed with 18 dingers and 72 RBI. Orlando Merced drove in eighty. The Buccos hit .266, 138 homers, and led the N.L. with 319 doubles...Denny Neagle led the pitching staff with 14 wins and 131 K's despite a late August trade to Atlanta. Jon Lieber was next with nine wins; Danny Darwin won seven. The staff ERA was 4.61 for the season...Attendance was a little over 1.3 million.
