Within months of winning a World Championship, owner Wayne Huisenga felt it was the right time to cut payroll and unload his most sought-after players: Bobby Bonilla, Charles Johnson, and Gary Sheffield ALL went to the Dodgers early in the year. Jeff Conine, Moises Alou, Kevin Brown, Al Leiter --GONE!! These Marlins are the first team in major league history to finish dead last after winning a World Series crown the previous season. They were a combined 0-21 versus the Reds, Brewers, and Giants...Team Leaders: Cliff Floyd (22 HR, 45 2B, 90 RBI, 166 base hits, 85 runs scored); Brian Meadows (11 wins); Livan Hernandez (162 K's)...The team hit .248 and 114 homers (both 15th in the N. L.); the pitching staff posted the league's worst ERA (5.18).
