The Giants ended the year in the lower half of the National League in hitting (.257) and home runs (122). Pablo Sandoval, soon to be the "Fan's Choice" and nicknamed "Kung Fu Panda," led the ball club with 25 homers, 90 RBI, 189 base hits, and 79 runs scored. His batting average ranked him fifth in the majors. Bengie Molina added 20 home runs and 80 RBI...The pitching staff and its 3.55 ERA was second in the N. L. It was led by two-time Cy Young Award winner Tim Lincecum who won fifteen, struck out 261, and completed four games. Matt Cain won fourteen games and Barry Zito ten...Two future stars made their debuts in September: "Buster" Posey went zero for one versus the Dodgers on the eleventh while Madison Bumgarner, only twenty, debuted on the eighth going 5 1/3 innings against the Padres giving up two earned runs on five hits. He struck out four but did not figure in the decision of a 4-3 loss...The Giants led in the NL Wild Card race most of the year before conceding to Colorado and finishing runner-up.
