Designated hitter Jack Cust was the A's leader with 25 home runs. Catcher Kurt Suzuki was next with 15 homers and a team leading 88 RBI. Cust knocked in 70 runs. Two big boppers, Jason Giambi and Matt Holliday, were acquired to add some punch to the line-up and the pair contributed 11 home runs each...The A's were hurt by mediocre pitching: The staff leader in wins was Brett Anderson with 11 victories while Trevor Cahill added ten. Anderson topped the staff with 150 K's. Oakland finished 22 games behind the AL West Champion, Angels, from whom the A's won seven of nineteen games between the two during the regular season. Attendance was just over 1.4 million at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum...As a team, the A's hit .262--good for ninth place. The staff ERA was 4.26 with 156 home runs allowed--the latter the LEAST in the American League. Closer Andrew Bailey made the All Star team and was named American League Rookie of the Year.
