For the first time since 1987, The Tribe remained BELOW .500 for an entire season...After the first two months, the closest they would come to the .500 mark was on June 14th with a record of 29-36. The team was in fifth place of the AL Central just six games from the top spot...Shin-Soo Choo was the team leader in four main offensive categories: Home runs (20), RBI (86), base hits (175), and runs scored (87). Brady Sizemore was next with 18 homers; Jhonny Peralta was second in RBI (83). For the year, The Tribe hit .264 and 161 homers...The pitching staff posted one of the WORST ERAs in baseball: 5.06. David Huff's eleven wins topped the staff while Cliff Lee, prior to his trade to Philadelphia July 29th, ultimately was the high-man with 107 strikeouts. Carl Pavano won nine ball games; Lee and Aaron Laffey both won seven...Versus division foes, the Indians won thirty and lost forty-two.
