On March 22nd, during Spring Training, three Indians teammates, Bob Ojeda, Steve Olin, and Tim Crews went for a boat ride resulting in a horrific alcohol-related accident. Near dusk, the boat the three were riding in struck a pier killing both Olin and Crews while Ojeda survived with a severe head injury and missed much of the season... Albert Belle dominated opposing pitchers with his team high 38 home runs and major league-leading 129 RBI. Carlos Baerga, who hit 21 homers and drove home 114, was the leader with 200 base hits. He was second behind Kenny Lofton's 116 runs scored with 105. Lofton was the major league stolen base champion. Manny Ramirez, who would later become a huge fan-favorite, very controversial, and one of the elite hitters in the game, made his big league debut September 3rd going zero for four versus the Twins. For the year, The Tribe hit .275 as a team and 141 home runs... Pitching kept the Indians out of contention. Jose Mesa led the staff with ten victories and 118 strikeouts. Mark Clark and reliever Tom Kramer were next with seven wins apiece. The staff ERA was eleventh in the league (4.58)... "Candy" Maldonado's birth name is Candido.
