The "Brew Crew" posted their best record ever and won their first NL Central title. At one point, the Brewers led the division by ten games in late August before the Cardinals got hot and trimmed that lead to 4 ½ games. During this time, the Cards swept a three-game series in Milwaukee. Soon after, the Brewers swept the Reds in a three-game series to keep St. Louis at bay. Milwaukee clinched the division September 23rd. St. Louis finished second, six games behind the Brewers...Prince Fielder topped the ball club with 38 homers and 120 RBI. Ryan Braun (33 home runs) was the team leader with 111 RBI, 187 base hits, 109 runs scored, and 38 doubles. Corey Hart popped 26 dingers while Rickie Weeks added twenty. Braun was voted the National League's Most Valuable Player. Milwaukee hit .261 for the year and were first in the N.L. in homers (185)...Yovani Gallardo led the hurlers with 17 wins and 207 K's. A huge pick-up in the off-season, ace Zack Greinke, was 16-6 and whiffed 201 batters. Randy Wolf and another big acquisition, Shawn Marcum, both won thirteen. The staff ERA was 3.63...They went on to beat Arizona in five games in the NLDS, but lost to the eventual World Champion Cardinals in the NLCS, four games to two.
