Future Hall of Famer Bobby Cox returned the Braves to the playoffs under his direction one last time, but after winning the NL Wild Card game, the eventual World Champion Giants eliminated Atlanta in the NLDS, three games to one...Catcher Brian McCann was the Braves' leader in home runs (21) and RBI (77). Rookie Jason Heyward had a great season with 18 homers and 72 RBI. Martin Prado led the ball club in hits (184), doubles (40), and runs scored (100)...Tim Hudson's 17-9 record led the pitching staff while Derek Lowe was 16-10 for the year. The strikeout leader was Tommy Hanson with 173 K's. Hanson also won 10 ball games. Closer Billy Wagner whiffed 104 batters...Bobby Cox retired at the conclusion of the season with 2,149 wins, five pennants, and one World Championship in Atlanta...At the plate, the Braves hit 139 home runs, a league leading 312 doubles, and for a team batting average of .258. The staff ERA was 3.56...Atlanta finished six games behind division champ Philadelphia. The Phils won the season series, 10-8.
