After speculation that he would step down as Cardinals manager, Tony LaRussa agreed to come back for his fifteenth season making him the longest-tenured MGR in team history...The Cards finished five games behind the Reds in the NL Central; however, St. Louis WON the season series, 12-6... Albert Pujols, second in MVP voting, led the ball club with 42 homers, 118 RBI, and 115 runs scored. Matt Holliday hit 28 jacks, drove in 103 runs, and topped the team in base hits (186) and doubles (45)...Adam Wainwright led the hurlers with twenty wins, 213 K's, five complete games, and two shutouts...The Cards hit .263 with 150 home runs and compiled a staff ERA of 3.57 for the season, the latter fourth best in the league.
