Many prognosticators had picked the Padres--hands down--to finish LAST in the NL West... As late as August 25th, San Diego had a 6 ½ game lead on the second place Giants with a record of 76-49...The following day, the Padres began to wallow through a ten-game losing streak. On September 26th, they led the Giants, again, by ½ game, but after losing three of four games to the Cubs, the Padres fell behind the Giants and never recovered... A loss on October 3rd knocked the Padres out of playoff contention... San Francisco won the division by just two games... San Diego WON twelve of the eighteen meetings with the Giants during the regular season... Adrian Gonzalez led the ball club, by far, with 31 homers and 101 RBI. Will Venable hit 13 home runs; Chase Headley added 11 circuit clouts and was second with 58 RBI... Leading the pitching staff were THREE 14-game winners: Clayton Richard, Jon Garland, and Mat Latos. Latos led the staff in strikeouts (189). Richard was second with 153 K's. Closer Heath Bell whiffed 86 batters... Staff ERA: 3.39--second in the N.L... San Diego was LAST in the league with a .246 batting average. They were ranked twelfth after hitting 132 home runs for the season... Skipper "Bud" Black's birth name is Harry Ralston.
