Kendrys Morales' season was off to a great start UNTIL...he suffered a broken leg during a home plate celebration after hitting a walk-off grand slam homer to beat Seattle at THE BIG A, May 29th...Mike Napoli led the Angels with 26 homers and 68 RBI. Torii Hunter was second with 23 dingers and a team leading 90 RBI...Howie Kendrick led the team in hits (172) while Bobby Abreu was tops with 88 runs scored to go with 20 homers and 78 RBI. The Halos hit .248 and 155 home runs for the year...Ervin Santana (169 K's) logged the most wins on the pitching staff (17) and Jered Weaver (13 wins) was the strikeout leader (233). Joel Pineiro was a ten-game winner. The staff ERA was 4.04 (sixth in the A.L.)...The three-time defending AL West champions opened the year going 3-7 and reached .500 by the end of April. An 18-9 record for June seemed to indicate a turn-around and at the All Star break their record stood at 47-44. A 9-17 month of July left them at .500 where the team hovered the rest of the way. Their longest winning streak was six games, the longest losing streak seven.
