When Eric Wedge was let go as manager after the '09 season, Manny Acta was hired to be the skipper of The Tribe following a short stint with the undermanned Washington Nationals...Shin-Soo Choo led the ball club in several categories: home runs (22), RBI (90), base hits (165), doubles (31), and runs scored (81). DH Travis Hafner hit 13 dingers and drove home 50 runs while utilityman Jayson Nix popped 13 homers. For the year, the Indians hit .248 and 128 home runs...Roberto Hernandez was the pitching staff's top winner (13) and leader in complete games (four). Mitch Talbot was 10-13 and led the staff with 140 K's. Hernandez totaled 124 punch outs. Four other hurlers won six games. The pitching staff ended the season with a 4.30 ERA ranking them eleventh in the A.L.
