Tom Seaver, later to become known as "The Franchise," debuted in the big leagues April 13th at Shea Stadium with a no-decision against the Pirates. He tossed 5.3 innings allowing six hits, four walks, and two earned runs in a game the Bucs won, 3-2. Seaver also struck out eight and earned his first career base hit, a single in the fourth inning off "Woodie" Fryman. (He walked in his first at bat in the second.) At twenty-two, Seaver's numbers--16 wins, 18 complete games, 170 strikeouts, and 1.203 WHIP--garnered him National League Rookie of the Year accolades. Tommy Davis led the Mets in most offensive categories, including BA: 16 homers, 73 RBI, 174 base hits, 72 runs scored, and 32 doubles...The ballclub finished ninth in the N. L. with a .238 BA and 83 homers. The staff was eighth in ERA (3.73).
