The early favorite of Marlins' fans was Jeff Conine who led this ball club with 25 homers and 105 RBI. First-sacker Greg Colbrunn followed with 23 dingers and 89 runs batted in. Terry Pendleton topped "The Fish" with 149 base hits while Quilvio Veras posted a team high 86 runs scored. As a team, they hit .262 and 144 home runs for the season...The pitching staff ended the year with a 4.27 ERA. John Burkett and Pat Rapp both won 14 ball games to lead the staff. Burkett tied lefty Chris Hammond for the most strikeouts (126)...The Marlins finished their third campaign 22 1/2 games behind the first place Braves in the NL East. Florida won three of thirteen meetings with Atlanta during a season abbreviated by a players' strike which began in late '94. Play resumed in '95 on April 25th when Florida faced off with the Dodgers.
