In the Devil Rays' seventh season since joining the American League, they finally finished out of the cellar of the AL East for the first time. However, the D-Rays were 30 1/2 games behind the division champion Yankees who won their season series, 15-4...For the year, the ball club hit .258 with 145 home runs and 132 stolen bases. Leading the team was Aubrey Huff (29 homers, 104 RBI); former Yankee Tino Martinez (23 home runs, 76 RBI); and Jose Cruz, Jr. (21 dingers, 78 RBI). Speedster Carl Crawford led the Devil Rays in hits (185) and runs scored (104)...The pitching staff, which ended the year with a 4.81 ERA, had lefty Mark Hendrickson as its leader with ten wins. He struck out eighty-seven. Victor Zambrano won nine contests and led the staff with 109 K's. Rob Bell was a winning pitcher eight times while spot starter John Halama won seven games....The D-Rays scored 714 runs and allowed 842 for the season.
